--Austria Fears Disease--Gale Prevents Operations in the Dardanelles

THE ARMY LIES IN WAIT AT NARROWS STILL FROM

Allies Have Only Wrecked Secondary Defences Yet

Lull is Apparent in Both the War Zones.

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, March 22.—The fall of Troy was characterized by the falling down of the last bar of the gateway into Hungary, and an early Russian advance in that direction is anticipated in England. The German press prances wildly the gallantry of the defenders of this Galician fortress, while at the same time it does not attempt to minimize the effects of its surrender, and expresses unhesitating confidence in the long eastern battlefront of the Teutonic allies.

The latest authentic information from the Dardanelles sets forth positively that only the secondary defences of the Straits have suffered from the bombardment of the allied fleet; the forts in the narrows are intact.

FIELD MARSHAL FRENCH SEES EARLY VICTORY

(By Times Special Cable.)
Paris, March 22.—Annihilation, annihilation, nothing but annihilation! That is the essential problem of the war, in the opinion of Field Marshal Sir John French, who is quoted as saying: "I do not believe it will be a long war. Spring promises that the allies are confident, and all these have, that a decisive, and decisive victory, will be the result of the lack of military necessary for war."

GERMANS TO EVACUATE ANTWERP BY MAY FIRST

(By Times Special Cable.)
London.—The correspondent of the Daily Express telegraphs from Antwerp: "Exclusive news which reaches me from a most authoritative quarter indicates that the Germans intend to evacuate Antwerp by May 1. They will withdraw directly from the city in the night, where they expect to make their final stand in Belgium. The German intelligence bureau has been extremely anxious to get Belgium and Antwerp, and has sent to main headquarters extensive reports about the strength of the allies at along the line, with the view to making it understood in Germany it is futile to resist their pressure. Plans for a desperate defence of Antwerp recently were given up because it became obvious, in my opinion, that the Germans would not leave the city to the Allies. ### 600 FINE GUNS MANY LIKE THIS COMPANIES BEING FORMED TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS TO WORKMEN

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, March 22, via London.—The importance is attached to the fall of Troy, by the Allies. Liking the surrender of the Galician fortress to the fall of Troy, the French government has issued the capitulation of Port Arthur to the Russo-Japanese war, this paper says that the last Galician fortress has been removed to the Russian advance in the direction of the Dardanelles. The Russian authorities have received information to the effect that the German army is in good order, notwithstanding the long war, and is capable of being taken working order immediately. The Russian army of the newest type were found in the fortifications.

HOME GUARDS

The new ones, that will be held at the headquarters of King Street on Thursday at 2 p.m. for non-commissioned officers.

ARMED CREWS DANGER TO FIGHT

Though Home Dardanelles Ports Are Still Dangerous

How the Heroes of the Bouvet Went to Death

(By Times Special Cable.)
Paris, March 22.—A ship blew through the Dardanelles yesterday, and the allied warships did not leave their anchorages, says a Havas dispatch from Athens. The morale of the crews on the vessels of the Franco-British fleet is said to be excellent, notwithstanding their losses, and they are eager to get into action again.

It seems certain that Fort Chanak Kalat, Hamilton and Kilit Bahi still are capable of offering serious resistance. A number of Turkish field batteries have been posted along the Straits, and German howitzers have been mounted on rails so they can be moved quickly to threatened points. This is supposed to explain the firing from certain forts, such as Kilit Bahi, which were supposed to have been destroyed.

BOUVET HEROES' DEATHS

Paris, March 22.—Standing at salute and shouting "Vive la France" the officers and crew of the French battleship Bouvet, sunk in the Dardanelles on March 18, went down with their ship. The French commander of the Bouvet, who was killed, was Captain de la Roche. The ship was hit by a shell from the British battleship HMS Queen Elizabeth, which was firing at the Bouvet. The ship was hit in the bow, and the fire spread to the magazines. The ship was blown up, and the crew was killed.

LOCAL ACTIVITY

Military Bodies Are Busy Getting Ready for War

Every night this week there will be activities at the Armouries. Last evening the 1st regiment officers started a recruiting campaign, and will continue the rest of the week. The 12th Regiment will also take on recruits, as both regiments are below strength. The recruiting last night was not very successful, only a few men being taken on, but it is expected that both regiments will be able to come up to full strength by the end of the week. The men taken on were brought into shape, and the raw recruits are making a fine show of themselves. The 12th Regiment is being drilled, following the men taken on. This morning the 12th Regiment will be followed regularly until the men leave the camp.

WANT BLANKETS

Cannot Bring Soldiers Here Until They are Provided.
It is hardly likely that any of the units that will make up the third contingent mobilization in Hamilton, will be ordered here, before next week. The 12th Regiment is being drilled, following the men taken on. This morning the 12th Regiment will be followed regularly until the men leave the camp.

SURE ABOUT IT

Body Identified as That of Frank Howard.
The remains of Frank J. Howard were definitely identified yesterday by Mrs. Howard and brother, James Howard, who were present after identifying the remains had been placed in a coffin. The body was found in a trench near the front lines.

AUTO MEETING

Discussing Readily With the Premier Re-De-De.
This morning a delegation from the Ontario Motor League waited on Premier Howard, asking that roadwork be allowed in American and Ontario roads. The Premier was very kind to him that could easily be done in view of the fact that the traffic has been limited. Last year it cost only $4 for any kind of car, $10 for 20 to 25 hp., $20 for 25 to 35 hp., and $25 for all over 35 hp. The Hamilton Automobile Club asked the Premier to take up the proposition, which was to Toronto to place the case before the Premier.

READY MADE

Concentrated soup will be demonstrated at the Hamilton City Hall. We extend a cordial invitation to you to call and sample the many lines of ready-made clothing, prepared by the Franco-American Clothing Co. One thing is certain, the ready-made suits, worn only—A. G. Bain & Co.

TROUBLE OVER OIL COMMENCING ALREADY

Such Was Report at the Board of Control Meeting Today.

Electrical Workers Union Want Contractors to Pass Exams.

There was little of an exciting nature at the meeting of the Board of Control this morning. It was indicated that trouble over the oil supply was already commencing, but this was not gone into fully, being referred to the Works Department. The greater part of the morning was spent in opening tenders for sewer pipe. The tenders were received by the controllers Robson and Morris as a sub-committee, to make recommendations by the end of the week. Tenders of an important nature were let.

MAY BE CITY MAN

Herbert Burgess, of Patricia, Sick at Halifax.
Some doubt is expressed by local authorities as to whether the Herbert Burgess, a member of the Princess Patricia's, who is reported to be in the quarantine hospital at Halifax, suffering from influenza, is the same as the Burgess who was with that regiment from this city. A number of the Patricia's arrived at Halifax on their return from the front, and a number of them were with the regiment when it was in the quarantine hospital at Halifax.

NOT MORELLI

Who Offered to Supply Cheap Foreign Labor.
It was not Charles Morelli, the well-known interpreter, who headed the delegation of foreigners to the City Hall the other day in search of work on the new highway between Toronto and Hamilton, although some of the party, it is claimed, stated that they were looking for work. Charles Morelli, who was in a position to supply a lot of cheap labor, was not the man who offered to supply the labor. The man who offered to supply the labor was a man named Morelli, who was not Charles Morelli.

GARDEN CLUB

Money Not Coming in Rapidly for the Purpose.

The response of the members of the Garden Club to the Garden Club Fund, raised by the Board, is not as rapid as was expected. The Garden Club has been very successful in its work, and has been able to raise a large sum of money. The Garden Club has been very successful in its work, and has been able to raise a large sum of money.

WANT A GRANT

From Government for Bridge Over Valley Inn Lake.

At a conference yesterday of Mayor Walters, Aldermen J. W. Tyrrell and George Conner, it was decided that the Dominion Government should be asked to grant a building of a large steel bridge near the Valley Inn. While some of those associated with the scheme are optimistic concerning the Government's attitude, others want such a step to be taken, saying that if the authorities turn down the request for assistance the scheme can be dropped in a disfigured manner.

LONG SERVICE REMEMBERED

At the regular meeting of the Hamilton Branch of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, held on Monday night, the long service of a member of the force was remembered. The member of the force was a man named [Name], who had been in the force for many years. The member of the force was a man named [Name], who had been in the force for many years.

SEEKING TO AUSTRO-GERMAN ARMS

50,000 Soldiers Surrendered When Fort of Przemyel Fell.

Nine Generals and 300 Officers Were Also Taken.

Poznań, March 22.—The Austro-German forces of Przemyel, on the Galician-Russian frontier, regarded as one of the strongest in the world, surrendered to the Russian army today.

The capitulation came this morning when General Pluk von Ruden, commander of the infantry force, and General Hermann von Kusmanek, commander of the artillery and the forts, signified through messengers through the lines that they had surrendered their means of defence. The terms of the surrender have not yet been arranged, but it goes without saying that the Russian and Austrian forces will be accorded the full honors of war.

Depleted by disease, subsisting on horse flesh and surrounded by a superior force of Russians, the garrison of the mid-Galician town laid down its arms after a defence lasting many months.

50,000 PRISONERS.

The hoisting of the white flag over this fortress, which was not to be the point of surrender, on a number of occasions, caused little surprise, and it ended the long question of its fate.

Official reports state that nine Austrian generals were taken, more than 300 officers and 50,000 men.

ad at Lemberg from Przemyel, captured shortly before the garrison surrendered, say that the city was in a condition of famine, lacking bread and other food. Called for the terms of the Austrian officers as animals, they say, was visible in the town, all having been killed except a few who recently had little to eat except corn cobs, which led to much illness and other sickness. Conditions were, say the prisoners add, that they almost died of hunger. The Russian officers who urged that the city be surrendered.

The investment was not a close one, the garrison having had up to the last moment a number of about twelve miles in which to move about, and some of the Russian officers who were engaged in the city by the officers of the garrison. An aeroplane post was maintained almost up to the last, and it is said that even some scanty food was supplied for the garrison.

This report gives confirmation in the present status of the diplomatic situation in the far east, which (judging from the Balkan press) is nearer intervention in the quarrel than they were when the British press first appeared on the scene. In spite of the optimistic tone of the Greek press, it is generally believed in London that the Greeks are not yet ready to advance to the aid of Greece, while in Greece circles there is growing uneasiness over the possibility of a new attack on the first step toward active participation in the struggle.

The battle along the western front now apparently is being fought on a new basis, and the most serious situation is being reported.

Advances of the allies have been reported for the German land on Paris by the German press, and the German press is now reporting that the allies have been successful in the attack of German positions on Dutch capital, and the German press is now reporting that the allies have been successful in the attack of German positions on Dutch capital.

Berlin, March 23.—(By wire to the press.) The following report was received today at the German press: "Two French night attacks near Verdun, northwest of Arras, were repulsed."

"In Champagne German troops successfully blew up tunnels and repulsed a night attack near Bapaume. Minor French advances near Compiègne. Arras and Tournai were held. A night attack against the German position near Valenciennes was repulsed. The German press is now reporting that the allies have been successful in the attack of German positions on Dutch capital.
